DEDICATION

Mr. Addington, a native of Scott County, attended Gate City High and graduated from Emory and Henry College in 1922 with an A. B. He then earned his masters degree from the University of Virginia, and was principal of the Clinchport Elementary and High School in 1922-23. The following year, he went to Lakeworth, Florida where he taught math. Then, Mr. Addington came back to Wise County and served as principal of Pound High School from 1924 to 1930. He was principal of Wise High from March 1, 1930 until the new High School was opened in 1953. Since then he has been chief administrator of the new J. J. Kelly High School here in Wise.

In addition to his high school work, Mr. Addington has taught classes at Radford College, Emory and Henry, and Clinch Valley College. He is the author of numerous short stories and articles, and the following books: HISTORY OF THE VIRGINIA COAL AND IRON COMPANY, HISTORY OF WISE COUNTY, LITTLE FIDDLER OF LAUREL COVE, SUGAR IN THE GOURD, and TIP OFF TO WIN.

GOOD-BY MRS. TAYLOR

Mrs. Taylor came to us ten years ago from the beautiful islands of Hawaii where she had taught for fourteen years. This immaculate lady became one of us quickly, and we will miss her very much now that she is retiring. Aloha!

Mrs. Leta Taylor

THE SEASON'S FOOTBALL STORY

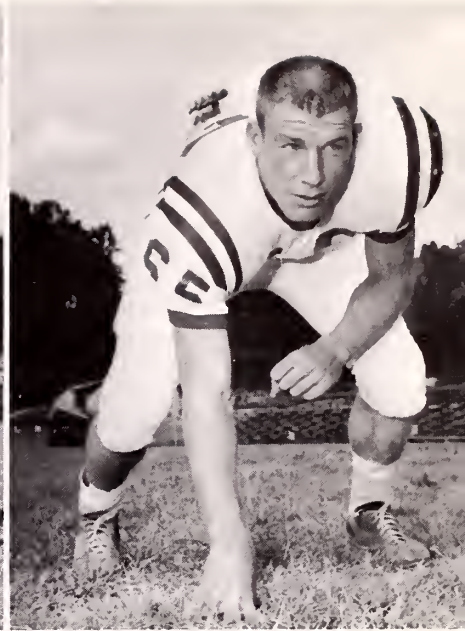

The '63 season started on September 6 with the Indians journeying to Norton where they defeated the Black Raiders by a score of 7-0. The following week at home the Indians shut out the defending Co-champions, Clintwood Greenwave, by a score of 6-0. After being behind at the half, the Indians came back strong to down Ervinton 20-7. The next week on September 27 the Indians carried a perfect record to Applachia, where they suffered their first defeat, 12-7, in the final two minutes of the game. On the 4th of October the Indians slaughtered Coeburn 27-7 at their homecoming. The following week, on October 11, the Kelly team defeated Jonesville 28-8 in a nonconference battle. On October 18, a huge crowd gathered here at Wise for the annual Homecoming game and festivities. A parade led off the evening, and Miss Rebecca Hart was selected as Homecoming Queen. The game -- a 14-0 defeat over Powell Valley. Later in a game that could have decided the championship, the Indians suffered a 7-6 defeat at the hands of the Gate City Blue Devils. Finally at the last home game the Indians defeated Pound 20-0 and closed out the season by crushing Haysi 33-0 in a game played on the field in Clintwood. The team finished a good season with a 8-2 winning record having the second best defensive average in the state.
